

Daily Brain Boost

001 / COMMUNITY EVENT PLANNING / CHALLENGE EDITION

Type one CAPITAL letter per white square, or print and solve with a pencil. Use Tab or click to move. No spaces or hyphens. No word bank.

To test saving: enter a few letters, Save As, close, and reopen your saved copy. Use a PDF reader if the web preview will not accept typing.

ACROSS

- 1. The ordered plan showing what happens when. (8)
- 3. The sign-up process that turns an invitation into an attendee list. (12)
- 5. Planning for participation across differing abilities and needs. (13)
- 7. A single-sheet invitation often pinned to a noticeboard. (5)
- 12. A willing helper who gives time rather than sending an invoice. (9)
- 13. A reusable starting layout whose old dates still need checking. (8)
- 15. The person or route to use when the instructions leave a question. (7)
- 16. A spending plan that must balance ambition against available money. (6)
- 17. The reply that tells an applicant a place is actually secured. (12)

DOWN

- 2. The last acceptable moment for a task, not its suggested start. (8)
- 4. Directional messages that keep visitors from guessing where to go. (7)
- 5. A stored collection that preserves useful records for later. (7)
- 6. A sequence of small boxes that helps prevent one large oversight. (9)
- 8. The booked place where the gathering happens. (5)
- 9. The difference between text and background that helps it stand out. (8)
- 10. Responses gathered afterward to inform the next event. (8)
- 11. A printed reference participants can carry away from a session. (7)
- 14. Words accompanying a social image to explain its context. (7)